

THREE POINT CONTACT

If you don't want to trip and fall down the steps, bridge your free hand to the truck. If you want help climbing back in, bridge your free hand to the truck. Bridging brings in the strength of your upper body to help stabilize and make you stronger. Who wouldn't want that!