

HANDLING LARGE LOADS

Pull the load out with your legs. Remember you have more power in a wide stance. To lift it, tip it away from you and step around the corner of the load. That way it stays close to you, will be easier to handle and the bottom corner creates a handle you can grasp!