

BRIDGE AND TIP

You can move much faster if you use your entire body for the task instead of dragging your upper body around like dead weight. Bridging with one hand while the other is busy pulling the load to you is a great example of using your body efficiently and spreading the wear and tear out over all of your joints!