

PUSHING A CAN

The key to a strong push is to keep a wide stance with your knees slightly bent and at an angle to the load you are pushing. By doing this you can push off with your back foot. You will find that pushing off with your back foot is much stronger than having both feet together and trying to push.